

unILINK

December 5, 2019

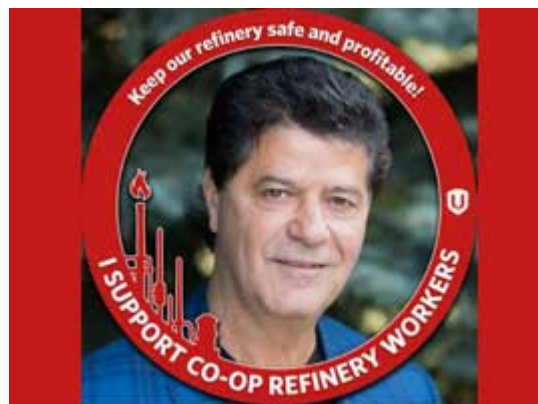

Strike and lockout deadlines loom as Co-op Refinery negotiations reach key juncture. Members reject second offer by Paccar after the company locks out nearly 1,400 workers. Plus, aerospace jobs are preserved as Bombardier announces a new Global Manufacturing Centre.

WHAT'S HOT

TAKE ACTION

After three years of weathering unsuccessful raiding attempts, FFAW-Unifor looks to unite fish harvesters to focus on the major issues facing the industry.

READ MORE

Support Unifor members at Regina's Co-op Refinery as they defend their pension plan from employer attacks. Add this frame to your Facebook profile photo.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Company attacks on the pension plan during bargaining has forced Local 594 to serve 48-hours strike notice to Co-op Refinery.

READ MORE

Nearly 1,400 members of Unifor Local 728, who manufacture Peterbilt and Kenworth trucks for Paccar are locked

Bombardier preserves quality aerospace jobs as it secures a long-term lease agreement for new Global Manufacturing out in Sainte-Therese, north of Montreal.

Centre at Pearson International Airport.

READ MORE

READ MORE

Unifor says Alberta Premier Jason Kenney's so-called consultations about stripping unions of a voice during elections are a sham.

As we mark the 30th anniversary of the Montreal Massacre Unifor calls for Canada to develop a National Action Plan on Gender-Based Violence.

READ MORE

READ MORE

Far too often people living with disabilities face economic, political and social exclusion. Read our statement on the International Day of Persons with Disabilities.

READ MORE

Unifor is committed to pursue all possible options to support Nemak members following disappointing arbitration ruling.

READ MORE

Unifor Aeroplan workers ratify ground-breaking agreement and set new standards in the customer service industry.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Watch the national TV ad in support of Co-op Refinery workers.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

On December 3rd we marked the International day of Persons with Disabilities. Download Unifor's Inclusive Practices Toolkit to ensure your union events are welcoming and inclusive.

READ MORE

Unifor