UNIFOR UNILINK

November 5, 2026

Amazon workers turn to Unifor in the GTA, solidarity with members on strike at Saint-Gobain, taking action to protect refining jobs, New Brunswick forestry crisis, fighting airport privatization, B.C. forestry campaign video, and a new contract for members at Diamond Petrochemical.

WHAT'S HOT

TAKE ACTION

Unifor held solidarity actions this week to support Local 12 members on strike at Saint-Gobain.

READ MORE

Keep Canada Refining: write your MP to demand the government protect Mississauga refining jobs.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Amazon workers from facilities across the Greater Toronto Area launched a new organizing initiative with Unifor on Nov. 4.

READ MORE

Changes to how NB Power prices electricity were imposed without consulting those with the most to lose, putting industrial jobs at risk.

READ MORE

Unifor members in the aviation sector met with federal NDP Leader Avi Lewis this week to discuss fighting airport privatization.

VIEW PHOTOS

A perfect storm of economic factors has pushed B.C.'s forestry industry—and the thousands of good jobs it creates—to the brink of collapse.

WATCH VIDEO

Local 914 members at Diamond Petrochemical have ratified a collective agreement with wage increases, a retirement benefit account, and improved benefits.

READ MORE