UNIFOR UNILINK

November 26, 2026

Unifor Media Council campaign, Habitat for Humanity partnership, take action against IPV, retiree benefits, Skilled Trades Council, defending single-step union certification, the International Day of Persons with Disabilities, protecting N.B. forestry jobs, video review of BCRC, Amazon workers open house, Victoria transit job action, and a new contract at IMP Aerospace.

WHAT'S HOT

TAKE ACTION

Watch a recap of Samia Hashi, Skilled Trades members, and Local 79M members doing their part at a Habitat for Humanity build site.

WATCH VIDEO

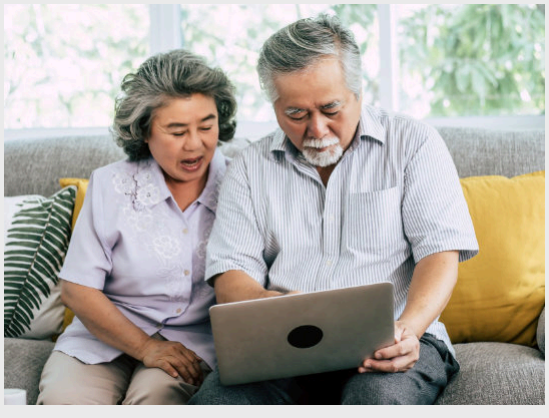
Participate in the 16 days of actions against gender-based violence and demand that decision-makers declare IPV an epidemic.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Members in the media sector gathered at this year's Media Council to learn new skills to defend their industry.

READ MORE



Unifor selects a new benefits program to help retirees without health coverage

Members and advocates unite in Thunder Bay for an intimate partner violence symposium.

access affordable options.

READ MORE

READ MORE

Unifor's National Skilled Trades Council discussed manufacturing sector challenges, barriers facing apprentices, and elected the new executive committee.

READ MORE

Defending single step certification is one easy way for the new B.C. government to stand with working people, writes Gavin McGarrigle.

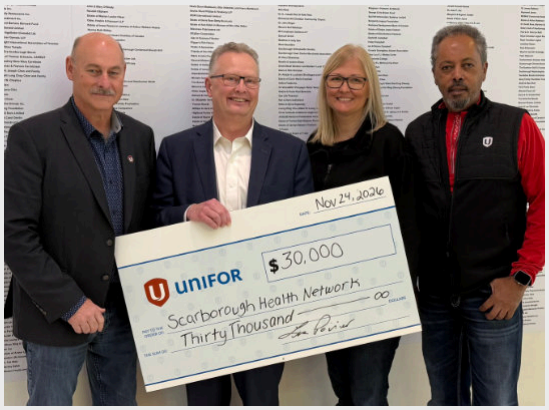
READ MORE

December 3 is the International Day of Persons with Disabilities, a day to promote accessibility, inclusion and equality.

READ MORE

Unifor remains optimistic about saving forestry jobs after the N.B. government announced it is exploring sale opportunities for the Nackawic mill.

READ MORE



Unifor donated $30,000 to Scarborough Health Network to support hospital upgrades and investments in medical equipment.

READ MORE

Watch a video review of the 2026 B.C. Regional Council in Victoria.

WATCH VIDEO

New members working at the Amazon YVR2 warehouse celebrated their historic first collective agreement at an open house.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Local 333-BC announced a system-wide walkout for Nov. 27 after BC Transit rejected binding arbitration.

Unifor Local 2215 members at IMP Aerospace have ratified a new four-year collective agreement.

READ MORE

READ MORE