

July 31, 2025

Toronto Labour Day event announced, summer Pride events, Industry Council Tariff statements, strike ends at Cascade Aerospace, calling for a long-term softwood lumber deal, Ontario's biodiesel industry nearing collapse, Samia Hashi tours workplace in Sault Ste Marie, prioritizing jobs at Kruger in Corner Brook, honouring Garry Worth's legacy, strike action at Dajcor Aluminum, and a new contract at Hillel Lodge.

Unifor Industry Councils have responded to tariff threats with proposals to safeguard good jobs and sustainable growth.

READ MORE

Check out the summer's remaining 2SLGBTQIA+ Pride events near you and join Unifor to celebrate.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Join Unifor this Labour Day in Toronto for a powerful parade and rally to protect Canadian jobs—plus live music, kids' activities, free food, and CNE fun!

READ MORE

Unifor Local 114 members at Cascade Aerospace ratified a new contract ending a two-week long strike at this vital maintenance, repair and overhaul facility in B.C.

READ MORE

Canada needs a long-term negotiated deal with the U.S. to end the softwood lumber trade war.

READ MORE

National President Lana Payne and Quebec Director Daniel Cloutier wrote to Prime Minister Carney requesting urgent action to support Canada's forestry sector.

READ MORE

The abrupt closure announcement by Biox Corporation is the latest example of a failure to secure Canada's domestic energy supply.

READ MORE

Ontario Regional Director Samia Hashi joined Unifor Local 1359 members for a facility tour and to discuss supporting frontline rest home workers.

READ MORE

Unifor expects to see good forestry jobs protected well into the future as Kruger Inc. invests up to $700 million in its Corner Brook, N.L. mill.

READ MORE

Unifor honours the life and legacy of Garry Worth, a lifelong labour activist and former CCU leader, whose dedication to workers' rights will never be forgotten.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor Local 127 members at Dajcor Aluminum in Chatham go on strike after the company signaled plans to remove equipment and use scab labour.

Environmental, housekeeping and laundry services workers at Compass Group at Hillel Lodge long-term care ratified their first collective agreement.

READ MORE