

November 16, 2023

Unifor members at No Frills have a Monday strike deadline, good jobs and a just transition take centre stage at climate conference, First Student Bus workers could be on strike by the end of the month, Unifor members at Magna and IMP sign new collective agreements.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Watch Unifor National President Lana Payne comment on anti-scab legislation tabled November 9.

WATCH VIDEO

Sign the petition so Parliament can make important and lasting changes for workers by fixing Employment Insurance.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

A recent conference brought together Unifor members and experts to discuss the intersection of labour, environment, and economic policy in the context of the ongoing climate crisis.

READ MORE

More than 1,200 Unifor members at Loblaw-owned No Frills stores could be on strike on Monday, November 20.

READ MORE

November 19 is World Toilet Day, a global event to address the critical issue of sanitation, emphasizing the importance of safe and inclusive washroom facilities for all.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 2215 members working at IMP Aerospace in Hammonds Plains and Enfield, Nova Scotia have ratified a new collective agreement.

READ MORE

Unifor and Magna reached a tentative agreement on November 12 following a brief strike action at the Integram plant in Windsor.

READ MORE

Members of Unifor Local 4266 at First Student Bus will be in a legal strike position on November 29.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

Unifor members rallied in support of peace and joined the call for a ceasefire and access to humanitarian aid in Gaza.

VIEW PHOTOS

Interested in knowing more about Unifor's internationally recognized Women's Advocate Program? Read the pamphlet online, or order print copies to share with members.

READ MORE