

February 1, 2024

Unifor celebrates and reflects on the incredible contributions and resilience of Black communities for Black History Month. Check out a decade of victories of BIWOC members in a new video. Unifor calls on Parliament to fix the affordability crisis as the House resumes. Refurbishing units at Pickering nuclear power plant a positive step for economy and environment. Plus: Jamieson Laboratories workers are on strike and Unifor reaches tentative contract with Autoport Eastern Passage.

 WHAT'S HOT TAKE ACTION

Check out the powerful and joyous moments from ten years of Unifor BIWOC organizing in a new video celebrating Black History Month.

WATCH VIDEO

Register now for “Black Excellence, Unity, and Victories: A Unifor Black History Month Celebration”.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor celebrates the incredible contributions of Black communities for playing pivotal roles in shaping societies, breaking barriers, and inspiring profound and positive change.

READ MORE

As Parliament resumes, Unifor is calling on the government to address the affordability crisis, build the economy, accelerate anti-scab legislation, and fix Employment Insurance.

READ MORE

Refurbishing units at Pickering Nuclear Generating Station is a win for Ontario's energy workers, the economy, and a net-zero future, says SPEA-Unifor.

READ MORE

Read Unifor's op ed about the runaway contracting out at SaskTel during the Scott Moe administration.

READ MORE

Unifor is demanding Northern Pulp reverse its decision to end pension recall rights for members of Unifor Local 440.

READ MORE

Paper Excellence's announcement to curtail operations at its Crofton pulp mill indefinitely shows that all levels of government should be doing more to support B.C.'s forestry industry.

READ MORE

February 29 is Repetitive Strain Injury Awareness Day. Register for Unifor's bilingual webinar on preventing RSIs in the workplace.

READ MORE

Unifor's bargaining committee at Autoport Eastern Passage has reached a tentative agreement with the employer.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 195 members who work at Jamieson Laboratories in Windsor, Ont. went on strike at midnight after rejecting the latest offer by the employer.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Unifor locals embraced the opportunity to meet with the union's leadership and staff

RESOURCES

Check out the schedule for Unifor's Winter/Spring 2024 Area School

at an Open House at the national office on Jan. 24.

READ MORE

program and register today.

READ MORE