

January 29, 2026

Unifor members at Air Canada begin bargaining, PEL course registration is open, Artificial Intelligence conference, 2026 Ontario budget consultations, Thunder Bay Pulp and Paper jobs at risk, GM workers in Oshawa meet, Black History Month, and a new collective agreement for Bell Clerical unit.

WHAT'S HOT

Unifor opened collective bargaining this week with Air Canada on behalf of nearly 6,000 customer service agents.

READ MORE

TAKE ACTION

Register now for Paid Education Leave courses this March in Port Elgin. Enjoy a small-group learning retreat with union activists ready to learn, build relationships, and emerge as leaders.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor joined the International Conference: AI at Work, examining AI governance, regulation, and impacts on workers.

READ MORE

Local 89 President Alex Dumais brought the concerns of Ontario's forestry

Celebrate the contributions and resilience of Black people, confront injustice, and workers to the 2026 Ontario budget consultations.

READ MORE

recommit to building a more equitable society for all during Black History Month.

READ MORE

Thunder Bay Pulp and Paper mill will cease newsprint production, jeopardizing hundreds of jobs.

READ MORE

Watch Unifor Local 222 members gathered for an information meeting as GM plans to cut the third shift at the Oshawa plant.

WATCH VIDEO

Register now for Unifor's national Black History Month event, taking place in-person and virtually on February 28.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Bell Clerical workers secure wage gains and job protections in new collective agreement

READ MORE