

unILINK

July 30, 2026

Unifor secures an agreement at Titan Tool & Die, Jennifer Murray at health care rally, Via Rail investment, Ottawa eliminates contribution requirements for U.S. streaming services, lock-out ends at Battenfeld Grease, Local 12 begins strike action at Saint-Gobain, members of Local 1090 locked out at Casino Woodbine, HF Sinclair announces closure of refinery for 2027, order the Unifor bucket hat, Emancipation Day events, and Atlantic Membership Appreciation Day.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Atlantic Regional Director Jennifer Murray urged governments to stop two-tiered healthcare at a Charlottetown rally.

WATCH VIDEO

Order your Labour Day bucket hats before the July 31 deadline.

ORDER NOW

IN THE NEWS

Unifor and Titan Tool & Die have reached an agreement, bringing a nearly year-long lockout to an end for Local 195 members who stood strong on the picket line to fight for what they were owed.

READ MORE

Unifor welcomes $2 billion in passenger rail investment, including the return of domestic locomotive assembly and good jobs.

READ MORE

Unifor members at Battenfeld Grease have ratified a new collective agreement, ending a lock out.

READ MORE

Unifor says gutting the Online Streaming Act will lead to more media job losses.

READ MORE

Members of Local 12 are on the picket line at the Saint-Gobain plant in Plattsville, Ontario after the company failed to offer a fair deal on wages and pensions.

READ MORE

Casino Woodbine has locked out 100 members of Local 1090.

READ MORE

Unifor condemns the decision to shut Canada's largest base oil refinery, killing over 100 good union jobs.

READ MORE

August 1 is Emancipation Day, a time to commemorate the abolition of slavery, and recognize the harms and ongoing impacts of slavery and segregation on Black Canadians.

READ MORE

Unifor leadership, along with members in the Atlantic region and their families, got together for a day of fun to celebrate Atlantic Membership Appreciation Day.

READ MORE