

October 1, 2026

Unifor members participate in community events for Orange Shirt Day, watch the new 'Built Here. For Here.' video, take action for the right to strike, national union leaders oppose airport privatization, World Day for Decent Work, Unifor recreation conference, International Day of Older Persons, Local Union Equity fund deadline, and the Unifor hockey pool.

WHAT'S HOT

TAKE ACTION

Share Unifor's video underscoring the benefits of a made-in-Canada union.

WATCH VIDEO

The federal government is trying to limit the right to strike. Take action to stop C-39's attack on collective bargaining.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Atlantic Regional Director Jennifer Murray joined members in Newfoundland for the Rally for Reconciliation.

READ MORE

Lana Payne and CUPE's Mark Hancock co-authored an op-ed explaining how

On World Day for Decent Work, Unifor celebrates young workers organizing for airport privatization will harm the travelling public.

READ MORE

Unifor members from across the country gathered for a weekend focused on strengthening recreation across the union.

READ MORE

The deadline for fall applications to the Unifor Local Union Equity Fund is October 16, 2026.

READ MORE

good jobs, fair treatment and a better future.

READ MORE

Unifor recognizes the International Day of Older Persons and the knowledge, experience and contributions of older people in our workplaces, unions and communities.

READ MORE

Gavin McGarrigle joined hundreds of people in White Rock, B.C. on Sept. 30 for Semiahmoo First Nation's 6th Annual Walk for Truth and Reconciliation.

READ MORE

Score lots of prizes by signing up for Unifor's 2026 hockey pool!

READ MORE