UNIFOR UNILINK

October 29, 2026

B.C. members at BCRC prepare for a new conservative government, 2026 Canadian Council video, December 6 materials available to order, Lana Payne's writes about Chinese EVs, ending impunity for crimes against journalists, partnering with the YWCA, lobbying in Saskatchewan, a strike at Autobus Venise and a ratification at the Fairmont Hotel Vancouver.

WHAT'S HOT

TAKE ACTION

Take a look back at the 2026 Canadian Council.

WATCH VIDEO

Order buttons and posters in preparation for the National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

The 2026 B.C. Regional Council met in Victoria from Oct. 23 to 25 with the fight to protect Canadian jobs from the U.S. trade war at the centre of the discussions.

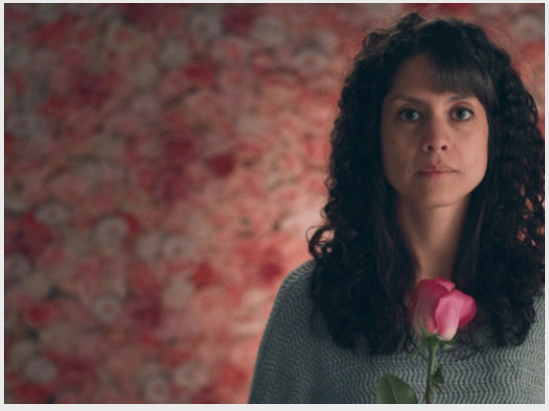
READ MORE

Lana Payne has published an op ed about China's emergence as the only winner in the US trade war against the Canadian auto sector.

READ MORE

November 2 marks the International Day to End Impunity for Crimes Against Journalists. When journalists are threatened, the public's right to know is under attack.

READ MORE



Unifor partners with YWCA Canada on campaign to end gender-based violence.

READ MORE

Unifor leaders are meeting with government and Opposition MLAs in Regina this week to call for fairer labour laws and safer workplaces.

READ MORE

Unifor vows to defend workers' rights under the next B.C. government.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Local 700 members at Autobus Venise are on strike over wages and guaranteed hours.

READ MORE

Workers at the Fairmont Hotel Vancouver will see wage increases of between 10% and 23% over the next three years.

READ MORE